Happy, Happy New Year from Rotary

May the New Year be Happy for you and your family!

The top ten New Year resolutions:

1. Continue my education – lifelong learning is a wonderful choice
2. Get a better job or make that extra effort to move up the ladder
3. Start exercising (again) – or make an appointment with the doctor, nutritionist and trainer to overhaul one's lifestyle to be healthier
4. Quit smoking or using nicotine in any form
5. Make a difference in the world – doing something significant to be the change that one wants to see in the world
6. Take a major trip – expand one's horizon – make and use the bucket list
7. Reduce debt and/or save money
8. Get organized
9. Improve a significant relationship
10. Find that someone special

News and Notes of interest

It's been really quiet out there. Lots of Rotarians have been on the road visiting families and friends. Some are still winging their way across the nation....south or west.

Events inviting your involvement

District Governors Elect Reception starts at Rooster Hill Vineyards, Sunday, January 10th around 3:30 or 4:00. Amy and Dave Hoffman open their doors for a comprehensive wine tasting. Then the group moves to Carol and Rob's home – 280 Route 54-East Lake Road for a dinner buffet. Bring your spouse! This year, there are about a dozen DGEs and their spouses from Asia, Europe and South America. Also, many of their hosts from the Northern half of the district will be here too.

Remembering 2015 in Rotary

What was that most memorable event in your life in Rotary this year? Was it momentous or breathtaking? Was it a little moment that crept up on you, but big enough to be burned in your emotional memory?

Was it the memory of fellowship or was it of service? Was it something that was said in gratitude, or was it a smile or a tear on someone's face.
